C.A. NO. C-07-047

MEMORANDUM AND RECOMMENDATION TO GRANT PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO DISMISS

This is a civil rights action filed by a federal prisoner. Pending is his motion for voluntary dismissal. (D.E. 8).

On January 29, 2007, plaintiff's action was filed alleging that prison officials at the Federal Correctional Institution in Three Rivers, Texas were denying him meals, specifically vegetarian meals. (D.E. 1). Specifically, he sought a preliminary injunction barring prison officials from feeding him non-vegetarian meals.

On February 5, 2007, a Spears hearing was conducted during which plaintiff informed the Court that he had started receiving vegetarian meals pursuant to a doctor's order. At this hearing, he indicated that he would file a motion to dismiss his action.

Plaintiff's motion is construed to be filed pursuant to Rule 41 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure:

Subject to the provisions of Rule 23(e), of Rule 66, and of any statute of the United States, an action may be dismissed by the plaintiff without order of court (i) by filing a notice of dismissal at any time before service by the adverse party of an answer or of a motion for summary judgment, whichever first occurs, or (ii) by filing a stipulation of dismissal signed by all parties who have appeared in the action. Unless otherwise stated in the notice of dismissal or stipulation, the dismissal is without prejudice, except that a notice of dismissal operates as an adjudication upon the merits when filed by a plaintiff who has once dismissed in any court of the United States or of any state an action based on or including the same claim.

Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(a)(1). The Fifth Circuit has established that a “plaintiff has the right to file a notice of dismissal at any time before the defendant has filed either an answer or a motion for summary judgment” pursuant to Rule 41(a)(1). Harvey Specialty & Supply, Inc. v. Anson Flowline Equip. Inc., 434 F.3d 320, 324 (5th Cir. 2005). Moreover, a “plaintiff has an ‘absolute right’ to a Rule 41(a)(1) dismissal.” Id.

Here, service of process of plaintiff’s action has not been ordered. Consequently, defendants have neither filed an answer, nor filed a dispositive motion.

Accordingly, it is respectfully recommended that plaintiff’s motion for voluntary dismissal, (D.E. 8), be GRANTED. Furthermore, it is respectfully recommended that his action be dismissed without prejudice.

ORDERED this 14th day of February 2007.

BRIAN L. OWSLEY
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

NOTICE TO PARTIES
